CHIEF RESIGNS AS POLICE
HEAD; HE BEGAN IN 1914

He was also Lake Captain and as Cabin Boy was the last to see Steamer Alpena Leave
Grand Haven Harbor

It is with a pang of regret that the writer hears that chief of police Frank Van Ry has tendered his resignation to the board of police and fire commissioners at Monday's meeting. Mr. Van Ry was asked to serve by the police board of 1914. That board was composed of Dr. Frank Devries; former mayor, Henry Brusse; Lovell W.
Stebbins of the Cappon-Bertsch Leather Co.; Dr. John E. Kuizenga; and Ben Mulder. It was after the resignation of Henry J. Dyk-house as chief who, by the way, is today 68 years old, that the matter of selecting a new chief was brought up to the board. It was at the suggestion of the writer that the board entertained the name of Frank Van Ry. There were no applicants, as the matter had not been made public. Even Mr. Van Ry did not know of a vacancy.

The board instructed Dr. Frank Devries and myself to drive over to Mr. Van Ry's house immediately and bring him before the board, which was done via home delivery. Mr. Van Ry was then made acquainted with the facts, and accepted the position, and his name was unanimously approved by the common council, and there was no opposition on the part of the board.

Mr. Van Ry served as chief ably from that time until 1938, with the exception of an interim of three years, from 1931 to 1934, when he was again selected for that position. Mr. Van Ry has been head of the department for 21 years, and it can be truthfully said that the department has been conducted in an orderly way by a man who, through his experience from youth up, had been trained in a law-enforcement capacity. Mr. Van Ry's first job was as a night-watchman, and no finer specimen of manhood walked the streets. He was tall, and at the same time athletic, with a soldierly bearing, who would be recognized immediately in any crowd. His presence at once commanded respect.

It was way back in 1889 when he was elected marshal. He was not alone the only "minion" of the law in this city, but it was his duty also to be at every fire, to keep order, and in his spare time he collected light and water bills for the city. He was again elected marshal in 1892, '93, and '96. He was elected sheriff of Ottawa County through convention system before there was a primary.
This was during the administration of McKinley and Hobart. It was November 7, 1896, when he carried Holland by 223 votes against a man by the name of Robinson, a Democrat. He won in the county by 1,141 votes. This is the year George P. Hummer, local furniture man, won over William Alden Smith for congress by 95 votes in Holland. Smith of Grand Rapids won overwhelmingly in his own city. The second term Mr. Van Ry won in Holland by 379 votes, and in the county by 1,534 over a Democrat by the name of Waite.

Mr. Van Ry became especially mentioned as a sheriff candidate after he had ferreted out one of Holland's most unusual murder cases. This city has had but few, but this one was heralded throughout the nation. It was the murder of E. W. Lawrence, whose body was found weighted down in Black River just below the then old Grand Haven bridge. A file copy of April 5, 1936 gives the full details covering pages. It suffices to say that Chief Van Ry, then deputy sheriff, under Sheriff Bastian D. Keppel of Holland, together with Albert Keppel also a deputy, trailed the murderers, a brother and a sister, way up north to Kelkaska. The bringing home of the two prisoners brought a furor in this city and an inquest, publicly held, in Lyceum opera house brought out all of Holland. The woman in the case was sent to the state house of correction for 20 years, however, her sentence was commuted five years later in 1901.
The man served for many many years afterward became an artist and musician in prison, was converted, and was an exemplary prisoner. Whether either of them

COUNCIL NOTES

Aldermen Henry Prins, Cornelius Kalkman and Henry Ketel were absent when common council convened Wednesday night, but Ald.
Kalkman arrived within a few seconds and Ald. Prins came in in time to vote "Yes" on the Board of Public Works land purchase question. Ald. Peter Huyser opened the meeting with prayer.

The largest building permits approved by council were for new residences for Rhine Vander Meulen, $2,800, and A. Plantinga, $2,300.
Ald. John Vogelzang moved their adoption.

The Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection Co. reported to council that the company's representatives had inspected the boilers in the city hall and that no action concerning them is necessary at this time.

Waterways are among the interesting subjects that will be discus-ed at a meeting of the Michigan Municipal League in Detroit Nov.
15 to 18. Various proposals as to how many representatives should be sent were voiced, with the final arrangement being, "All who can go," but not until after the next regular meeting of council Nov.
16. It is believed that the subjects which the Holland delegates would be interested will not be discussed until near the end of the convention.

James M. Mitchell of the Michigan Personnel service will be here Friday, City Clerk Oscar Peterson announced, and any aldermen who wants to discuss civil service with him should come up to the council chambers at 7 p. m.

Bernard Keefe was granted a license to operate the Hitching Post.

City Inspector Ben Wiersma's report was accepted for the month of October, including 19 milk plants inspected, 75 milk and cream samples taken and sent to the laboratory for testing, five samples of water taken, 37 complaints checked and investigations made, and the following units inspected: 18 producers, five slaughterhouses, 11 meat markets, 14 grocery stores, 19 restaurants and lunch rooms, five bakeries, 10 public rest rooms and 16 alleys and premises.

Purchase of $2,491.25 worth of pipes and fittings and a new '39 Chevrolet for $588.90 and the old 'Chevy' was approved for the board of public works and the park board, respectively.

Ald. Art Drinkwater complained that Central Ave. between Seventh and the city dump "hasn't been cleaned this year, and what doesn't get all the way to the dump falls there." He was referred to the city engineer.

Discussion about the wage scale for the power plant project ended when council was reminded that if some of the rates fail to come up to other set standards, more may be paid; the rates are the minimum required.

Clerk Peterson urged aldermen to tell election officials to be especially careful in counting the ballots this year, as an unusually large proportion of split ballots was expected. On being questioned by Ald. Drinkwater, City Attorney Parsons said that votes in which the "X" is placed after the name will not be counted; the mark must be before the name of the candidate. Council was adjourned at 7:55 p. m.

FORMER HOLLAND WOMAN DIES IN STREET CAR IN CALIFORNIA CITY

Miss Zona Arleth, former resident of Holland, died suddenly in Los Angeles, Monday, at the age of 59. Miss Arleth was stricken on a street car on her way home from work and did not regain consciousness.

She was employed as saleslady by Siegel's store in Grand Rapids for many years and was a member of Oriental chapter, No. 32, O.E.S.
Because of the illness of her brother Frank, she left Michigan two years ago for California. She is survived by a sister and three brothers. Burial was Thursday in Glendale, Calif.

The Arleth family lived in Holland more than 35 years ago. The late Mr. Arleth conducted a cigar factory in this city on the second floor of the McClellan store building, Central ave. and 8th st. The family lived in the home now owned by Carl Erickson, 76 West 14th st.
Mr. Arleth was also the owner of some fast horses when he lived in Holland which were entered in local fair race cards.

ECLIPSE OF MOON VISIBLE ON NOV. 7

The sun and moon will play
"hide and seek" in a total eclipse of the moon which will be visible Nov. 7 in every section of the United States except the far west. Dr.
James Stokley, director of astronomy of the Franklin Institute said today.

The sun and moon will be seen at the same time in the eastern states although the sun actually will have set. Dr. Stokley said.
He said the eclipse would not have the usual "dark orange" appearance until the sky begins to darken after sunset.

"The moon will pass through the terrestrial shadow from right to left at 3:41 p. m. (Eastern Standard Time) and at 4:45 will be completely engulfed," Dr.
Stokley said. "The edge of the moon will begin to emerge at 6:08
p. m. and the eclipse will end at 7:12."

Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Beardslee and daughter, Mary Ruth of Dow-agiac, motored to Holland yesterday and spent the day as the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mulder, 79 West 15th Street.

Holland To Be Out In Force Election Day

NEWS PRINTS IN THIS ISSUE BOTH BALLOTS

City Will Vote on State and County Ballot, Amendments, but also on "Tannery Lot" Proposal

Undoubtedly, Holland voters will be out in force, since they are deeply interested in the coming election. Next Tuesday they will be called upon to first vote on state, legislative, and county ballots, from governor to coroner. It is a large ballot, covering the size of a page of a newspaper. Then another ballot will be handed, the same size, containing four amendments. The official ballot, as it will be handed to the voters at the polls, will be found complete on the last page of this issue of the News, with the exception that it is marked "instruction" rather than "official." There are ten tickets on the ballot in the following order: First, Democratic; then Republican; following as follows: Socialist Party, Socialist Labor party of America; American party; Commonwealth; Protestant United party; Square Deal party; Constitutional Democrats; American labor party.

Turn to the last page, section three, and you have the entire ballot. On page two will be found the four constitutional amendments to be voted. This is also found in section three, and this ballot, too, is the same size—in fact, the same ballot you will be handed at the polls, with the exception of the word "instruction." Those of our readers in doubt about voting would do well to turn to these pages. Those who want an extra ballot can call at the News office for one. 300 extras are laid away for that purpose.

Another ballot that will attract taxpayers to the polls is whether Holland shall or shall not buy the "tannery property" on West 8th Street. That proposal, too, is found in full on page two, section two.
All the details and the cost and the payment at bonds, should it carry, are fully given. The Holland City News has previously explained this proposal in detail, on this occasion, as well as on another occasion when the matter was brought up and defeated. The voters are fully conversant on this subject.

The Democrat and Republican parties, the only ones that seem to be active, are at the "tag end" of one of the bitterest state campaigns ever waged. On the whole, the campaigns in Ottawa county congressional, legislative, and county have been free from bitterness so far, but the candidates of the two major parties. The campaign between them has been clean, and we hope it will continue so until election day.

It is very important that voters go to vote. It is your "God-given" right to have a voice in our government if this democracy is to remain. It is not only your right, but it is your duty to vote. It is not a matter of who you vote for or what your party preference may be, but the important thing is to vote. It is the stay-at-home who are the dissenters after election is over. Whatever you do next Tuesday, rain or shine, come out early and vote. Make that your first duty.

The following are the polling places:

First Ward—Lincoln School, Columbia Ave. and 11th St.

Second Ward—Second Street Engine House No. 1, 63 West 8th St.

Third Ward—G.A.R. Room, Basement Floor, City Hall, Cor. River Ave. and 11th St.

Fourth Ward—Washington
School, Cor. Maple and 11th St.

Fifth Ward—1st Precinct—Polling Place, College and 19th St.; 2nd Precinct—Longfellow School, 24th
St.

Sixth Ward—Van Raalte Ave.
School House, Van Raalte Ave. between 19th and 20th Sts.

Polls open from 7 a. m. until 6
p. m.

Community Chest Hits To $8,842 On Theomometer

Fifty-four per cent of the $16, 000 goal in Holland's community chest drive has been donated or pledged by Thursday noon, campaign workers learned at a luncheon meeting in the Woman's Literary club. The amount Thursday was $8,842.

Teams in charge of James D.
Boter, Willard C. Wichers and A.
E. Van Lente have already reached or exceeded their quotas.

By Wednesday noon, $5,201.28 had been subscribed, workers were informed when they met for the first of three noon luncheons in the Woman's Literary club at which reports to show the progress of the drive will be made. Another luncheon was to be held today, Friday.

Of the total of $16,000, to be raised by six divisions of the drive, $8,000 is to come from special gifts,
$1,300 from national corporations, $3,400 from industrial groups, $200 from public employees; $700 from schools and colleges, and $2,300 from individual gifts. Wednesday J.
J. Riemersma's schools and colleges division was in the lead, having reached 80 per cent of its quota.

Hart & Cooley Co. made an outstanding donation of $1,405.80, including the amount given by the company itself, officers and employees. The donation represented a 40 per cent increase over the company's amount last year.

The campaign began officially on Monday night with a steak dinner for all workers in the Woman's Literary Club. Speakers included A. W. Tahaney, chairman of the drive, Mayor Henry Geerlings, Dr.

Bill Connelly Sees Beauties of The West Coast

San Francisco, Cal.
Fri. Noon, Oct. 28, 1938

Dear Ben:
Just left the fine offices of Vance Mape. He is the same old bundle of energy. Immediately on arrival he took me to the top of the Empire Hotel for a view of the city and environs. 'Twas like being taken to the mountain top and being shown the promised land. Around us laid a lovely panorama of the city, to the north loomed the new Golden Gate Bridge and looking eastward the Oakland Bridge stretched its way across Treasure Island, which is the site of the coming Pacific Exposition. Many of the buildings are nearing completion and the project is taking on an impressive appearance.

Vance is the usual perfect host.
He and his family live at San Mateo, twenty minutes south of the city and near Palo Alto the home of former President Hoover. We leave soon for Muir Woods and en route will see the Dutch Wind Mills at Golden Gate Park.
They are said to be authentic and are in a beautiful setting on the seashore.

The highest of highlights in this land of surpassing scenery was the Monterey peninsula, it has created my desire to see the Bay of Naples.
Our tour thus far has included Palm Springs, Santa Rosa Mission, San Diego and all coast points north to Frisco. We will visit Yose-mite and Sequoia on our return to Los Angeles.

Harry Toy May Be Speaker Here Monday Night

BIG PARADE WITH SEVERAL BANDS, SOME FIREWORKS, LEAD BY A REAL ELE-PHANT

Holland is going back to old torchlight days of 50 years ago.
There may be no torch lights, but there will be plenty of bands, marching men, and some sort of fireworks for the Republican rally on the last night before election.
And what is more, the parade is going to be headed by a real elephant, the emblem of the GOP.
Preparations are still too vague to give full details, but three bands, possibly one from Zealand and a few from Holland, are said to be scheduled.

An endeavor is being made to get Harry Toy to come to Holland on Monday night, and it is said that the committee has some assurance of his being here. There are other speakers who will also be heard from, however, arrangements are being made late today for this unusual rally. The speaking will be in the old J. C. Penney building at College Ave. and 8th St. All the candidates on the Republican ticket, congressional, legislative, and county, will be on hand to be introduced, and it appears that there will be a real rally during this political campaign, even though it comes on the eve of election. The committee chairman are Alex Van Zanten, Prof. Bruce Raymond.

The writer is reminded when years ago the campaigning was largely done through the torchlight procession methods. The men were well-drilled and neatly informed, and fancy drilling by different clubs from different cities was one of the features.

The wind-up on the main street in Holland was generally a blaze of Roman candles, each marcher being well supplied, and the torch answered as a touchstone. At a given signal all candles were lighted, and soon the skies were blaze of fire balls, and the sidewalks at intervals flared with colored lights, a sort of calcium powder effect, mingled with the popping Roman candles. A victory not only meant a torchlight procession, but all the farm horses in the vicinity were brought into play, forming one vast division of horse-back riders, with the equines properly ornamented. Occasionally there were floats in the parade, and in one Democratic rally a Republican candidate for president was hung in effigy. Some young Democratic wags had put this at the tail end of the parade, but this float was condemned by the staid old Democratic citizens, and naturally by the Republicans. The Democrats claimed it had no part in the original program.

Anyway, the Republican elephant will be turned loose Monday night in Holland.

JOOS VERPLANKE SUFFERS INJURED HIP IN FALL

Joos Verplanke, age 94 years old, the last survivor of the Weather-wax post, G.A.R., Spring Lake, is confining to a Chicago hospital with injuries to his hip which he suffered following a fall. Tony Verplanke, Spring Lake, a son, expects to go to Chicago this week to see his father who is reported to be resting comfortably with no immediate fear for his recovery.

The aged man was visiting relatives in Chicago when he fell. He is unusually agile for a man of his years and travels a long distance each year to visit his several children and his grandchildren.

He, it will be remembered, was the first Democratic sheriff elected in Ottawa County. He was then a Holland man and his father was a boot and shoe maker on West 8th Street, located in a frame building where the Citizens Transfer Co. now is located.

Brower Writes More of Island and World Trip

PICTURES ONE OF LARGEST ICE GLACIERS ON EARTH.
BERG FROM THESE ICE RIVERS MILES LONG AND MOUNTAIN HIGH

ICELAND

By Dr. A. J. Brower

Glaciers or jukulls as natives call them.

A glacier is nothing but a mass of ice and snow and many miles long and wide, and sometimes comprises thousands of acres in area.
The Greatest Glacier of Europe is here and called "Vatnajokull." It is on the southeast side of this country and is commanding great attention at the present time on account of the enormous volcanic eruptions that have taken place there in recent years. These eruptions have broken through 1000 feet of solid ice. Investigators have reported that there is a peculiar phenomena of ice and fire mixed there during these activities.

The Captain of our ship Franconia said that he had visited Iceland at five different times and had never been able to see this vast glacier all on account of fog or rain, but this year we saw it all day as we slowly cruised by and near to it. The weather was ideal, near to it and no fog. We certainly were fortunate to have the elements of nature in our favor, at least when such a hazardous trip is endured. This glacier extended into the sea and so forms ice bergs as parts are broken off. Now, an iceberg is usually a very large body of ice that has become detached from its parent glacier on the shores of the polar regions and which floats about in the ocean, driven hither and thither by wind and current. Some are miles long and 200 or more feet above water and even a larger part under water.
Most all of the vessels plying between the United States and Europe pass directly through that part of the Atlantic usually strewn with icebergs. Due observation was made as our ship passed over the area where the memorable Titanic met its disaster, April 14, 1912, when 1500 lives were lost, among them John Jacob Astor, world known financier who proved a brave rescuer and hero and wouldn't leave the ship. Captain took all precautions and slowed down taking all signs and indications of them into account, for at night and in fog it is a difficult matter. While these icebergs move slowly, their enormous weight gives them a power sufficient to crush the largest ship as though it were an egg shell. Therefore they are greatly feared by navigators. Much good has been wrought to all oceanfarers since this terrible sacrifice of the Titanic and its many persons that lost their lives.

The variety of waterfalls is practically unlimited. The most famous of them all is Gullfoss, "Golden Water Falls." Huge thundering waterfalls, sparkling in all colors of the rainbow when the sun strikes the spray. The Icelandic nation is of Norse origin.
Settlers of this country nearly all came from Norway. It was first discovered in the latter part of the 9th century. By 930 A. D. the country had already become densely populated and long before America was discovered. They are very much overworked now—too many doctors, dentists, lawyers and school teachers—like it is today all over the world.

They have a nice university and very well equipped fine hospitals for general purposes and tuberculosis, leprosy and the insane. Illiteracy is unknown and the general level of education is considered very high. They indulge in many kinds of athletic sports, such as running and wrestling, especially to develop their bodies. The rugged character of the Icelanders is evident in the art which they have produced. The sculpture of Einar Jonsson is particularly impressive.
This man's work is grouped in a beautiful art gallery and resembles much the sculpture of the ancient Greeks at Athens. Facilities for studying old Norse and the social life of old Norse people are no scholars from all over Europe are coming here. Summers are short and cool. Winters long and damp.

The Icelanders must combat Tuberculosis which is susceptible partly due to those long, dark, damp winters, with no sun and ultra violet rays. There are no railroads and the jails are empty. They are very law-abiding people.

The interior of Iceland is generally wild and desolate, being covered with lofty mountains, masses of volcanic origin, many crowned with perpetual snow and ice which stretch down along their sides into the intervening valleys, there forming immense glaciers. The coast has jutting promontories, bays and fjords, offering a number of natural harbors.

The midnight sun is here for only about one week during the year. Religion is mostly Lutheran.
On the night we left Iceland the Reykjavik (most northern city in the world) Choral Society of thirty male voices sang for us on the sports deck of our ship many Icelandic songs. All were dressed in full evening clothes. It was an exceptional treat for us on board. The perfectly blended voices were remarkable but behind the musical programme was the poorest which it produced. Certainly it left every one of us with a splendid impression of the Icelandic people. Our admiration for them rose rapidly as they sang, and as we left them to their long winter months, we did so without a trace of sympathy—rather with a little regret.

A trip to Iceland is an unforgettable event in one's life. There is no country similar to it in Europe or anywhere else.

LARGE GLACIER IN ICELAND

SIXTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Some thieves broke into the boot and shoe store of Verplanks and Bouhuus on River Street Sunday last and took a pair of fine boots.
Note—Boots played a great part in footwear a half century ago.
All men wore boots especially in the winter, and these boots received a thorough greasing every Saturday night. The writer knows because he was the boot greaser at home. Today not a shoe dealer carries boots for fancy wear. Rubber boots used for certain classes of work are still in stock. The leather in shoes, especially in the ladies' varieties, is conspicuous for its absence.

The pump business has always been large in Holland. Now C.
Blom Jr. tells us that he is furnishing a new combination pump that excels all others. He drives a point down in the ground to wire water is and thus obviating the digging of a well. He then puts a wooden pump on the iron pipe—thus furnishing a pump that works easier and brings water faster than the ordinary iron pump. This new invention will be a boon to our citizens since all have pumps. Note:
—This undoubtedly was the drive well in common use 50 years ago after we were discarded. Not a few in Holland had regular wells of the "Old Oaken Bucket" variety.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Hon. G. J. Diekmann of Holland and Jacob Den Herder of Zealand will address the voters of Drenthe and West Olive at the school houses on the political issues of the day. Note—A few days later the files show that Harrison and Morton, Republican presidential and Vice presidential candidates, were swept into office by a landslide, defeating Cleveland and Hendricks, Democrats. Governor Luce, former governor, won on the Republican ticket, and Charles Belknap won over Milford H. Ford for congress by 2,800 votes. Ed Vaupell of Holland won in the Sheriff's race in Ottawa County.

Allegan is to have a new county court house. This was decided by a 600 majority vote in the county.
Note—Well, we now know that this building with the clock—the most prominent structure in Allegan City is a half century old.

Rosin and Blom have started a temperance hall on Sixth and River streets.

FORTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Contractor A. J. Ward and a large force of men are at work on the new car barn of the trolley line. Note—This later became the Holland Interurban to Grand Rapids, the resorts and to Saugatuck.
The car barn was built at what is now Virginia Park and is one of Park township's community halls on the south side.

Rev. Peter Zwemer, the Arabian missionary, died Tuesday evening at Presbyterian hospital, New York. The News devotes a half column on his death. His brother, the late Rev. James T. Zwemer, was at his bedside.

Jacob De Feyter has quit drying and resumed his former position in the Chicago and West Michigan freight depot on 7th Street.
Jacob was one of about five dry-men that Holland could boast of at that time. His stables were located near fire station No. 1 on West Eighth Street, and he generally was present to haul the two-wheel horse cart to a fire. That is about all the equipment this station then had.

Dr. A. Kuiper, Netherlands premier, came to Holland, was given a banquet at the City Hotel and spoke to a crowd that filled the chapel at Hope College. At night he spoke at Third Reformed church and all those wishing to hear him were not able to, for many were turned away. He was given a carriage ride to Graf-schap, Drenthe, Vriesland, Over-isel, Before coming to Holland he spoke to an audience of 2,200 in Hartman's hall, Grand Rapids. He will travel through America visiting all localities where Hollanders are located. Note—There were many guests at the banquet here.
Hon. G. J. Diekmann was toastmaster and the speakers were Prof.
Henry E. Dosker, Dr. G. J. Kollen, president of Hope College, Gerrit Van Schelven, Hon. D. B.
K. Van Raalte Sr., Rev. K. Van Goor and Prof. J. Talmadge Bergen. One sidelight rather strange to local guests was the fact that Dr. Kuiper smoked his pipe after the meal. Forty years ago this wasn't done in Holland, Michigan.
Today all smokers smoke after meals in public places, and that goes for women as well as men.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Four deaths occurred during the week: John Knoll, age 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucas Knoll, Laketown; Benj. Stroop, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stroop, Graves Place; Martin Wagenaar, age 61, who died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. Westveld, 54 W.
14th Street where he made his home for 15 years; John Merrill, a well known sign artist who died in Milwaukee, but who spent many years in Holland doing fine work.
He has a brother, Ernest, also a well known artist. Note—Ernest still lives in Holland at Montello Park and Florida.

Jay-Walking and Horn- Tooting

A motorist writes to his favorite newspaper that pedestrians are responsible for a good deal of the horn-blowing from which drivers of automobiles are blamed.

As long, says he, as pedestrians persist in crossing streets between intersections or against traffic signals, drivers are forced to use their horns to warn jaywalkers of approaching danger.

That is very true.

The only purpose for which automobile horns are supposed by the law to be sounded is to avoid accidents. And if drivers and pedestrians alike were careful not to invite accidents by disregarding the rules of the road and of common prudence, a good deal of the unnecessary noise raised by automobile horns could be safely eliminated.

Nine Safety Rules

The American Red Cross has issued a list of nine safety rules for hunters to follow in the attempt to reduce accidents this year. They follow:

1. Don't pull a gun carelessly from an automobile.
2. Remove shells from gun before crawling through a fence.
3. Don't use gun to club game from brush.
4. Don't carry your gun cocked; be sure the safety is in place.
5. Never point your gun at anyone in fun; carry it with the muzzle pointed toward the ground.
6. When out with inexperienced hunters don't deploy ahead of your companions.
7. Don't leave a gun where children can reach it.
8. Don't leave a loaded gun about the house.
9. Don't allow the gun muzzle to clog with mud or snow.

Extraordinary

From the wind-swept islands of Jersey and Shetland came two famous domestic animals, the Jersey cow and the Shetland pony. Though originally their toy-model size may have resulted from difficult environment, they responded to the needs of mankind remarkably.

A long time ago dairymen discovered that the little Jersey cow had natural virtues worthy of cultivation. There was a peculiar richness in Jersey milk compensating for the smaller quantity yielded by the diminutive animals.

Soon there were large numbers of dairymen specializing in breeding Jersey cattle and the results have been remarkable. The American Jersey Cattle Club recently reported the extraordinary record of "Sybil Tessie Lorna," a Jersey cow owned in Oregon. In a 306-day test, Lorna produced 1,020.52 pounds of butterfat; 17,121 pounds of milk. Her own body weight is about 1,000 pounds.

City folks who like good rich milk have reason to be grateful to the advances of science and the painstaking work of farmers and dairymen who make a plentiful, good and safe supply of milk available.

No Encouragement There

(Detroit News)

As the election in California Nov. 8 approaches, some supporters of the "Thirty Dollars Every Thursday" pension plan which is to be on the California ballots, have been writing to Alberta, Can., hoping for encouragement. They remember that three years ago William Aberhart, premier of Alberta, got the go signal for his Social Credit scheme which made the ambitious promise to pay a "social dividend" of $25 a month to all citizens.

The answer comes back that the Social Credit system hasn't really got under way. The government under Premier Aberhart's leadership has tried its best, but has played in hard luck with every lead. The quarter of a million dollars' worth of "Prosperity Certificates" issued didn't bring prosperity. After a brief trial, merchants decided they preferred real money. Various schemes were proposed by the backers of Aberhart, but no remedy was found for the difficulties.

And at last the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada ruled that the Social Credit Act was beyond the jurisdiction of the province.

A considerable party in Alberta clings to the idea that the Social Credit plan is all right in principle, but results so far give no leading for Californians pondering how they should vote.

We Need Him There

(Grand Rapids Herald)

When the voters of Kent and Ottawa counties go to the polls next Tuesday one of the offices for which they will cast their ballots is for Congressman. It should not take any thinking person long to decide for whom he will cast his ballot for that office. Carl E. Mapes, the incumbent, is too well known particularly in this Fifth Congressional district and all over the nation for that matter to need any boosts from this or any other newspaper. His services are too well known. That he has rendered service faithfully, efficiently, honesty is known everywhere. His Democratic opponent is a splendid citizen of Grand Rapids. One could say no ill of him if he were so disposed. But, nevertheless, Carl Mapes is just as splendid a citizen and furthermore has had the experience of many sessions in the Congress, has gained the seniority so vital to efficient service in Washington and has done so many fine things for so many of his constituents that in our own self interest we most certainly should return him.

In the case of Congressman Mapes it is not a matter of partisanship. Whether one be a Republican or a Democrat, a Socialist or something else he primarily is interested in the service his Congressman may render. A new man in the Congress had a long way to go before he can gain the recognition and the standing that gives him opportunity for real efficiency. Mapes is one of the oldest and recognized as one of the ablest of the members of the Lower Branch of the Congress. His standing lies not in his own party but in all parties among all his colleagues. He is as frequently consulted by Democrats as by Republicans. They all know him to be a man of honor and a good American citizen before he is a partisan. Consequently they trust him and in his counsel.

Again we say that Carl E. Mapes ought to be and doubtless will be returned to his old seat in the House of Representatives to represent the Fifth district of Michigan and he will be returned not alone because he is a Republican but because we of the Fifth district and the people of the Nation at large need him and his kind in the law making branch of the National Government.

McKAYISM

The Grand Rapids Herald in its columns on August 19, before the state primaries, published an editorial stating that it is a waste of time for Republican candidates to go into personalities, setting forth that the job in this state was to clean up the Democratic administration, and there was ammunition enough to keep the Republican candidates busy for a long time to come and that whichever Republican was elected for governor he would have to spend all his energies and the energies from other sources to clean up the mess. That primary, of course, is over, and opposing candidates have declared themselves for the entire Republican ticket.

The interesting part in that editorial, however, is what the Herald has to say in defining McKayism. The Grand Rapids publication is no doubt intimately acquainted with Frank McKay, their own townsman and neighbor, and his activities which they contact often no doubt. This is the way the Herald defines McKayism:

Why was it necessary to start sharpshooting as between the Republican candidates? And why bring up the old bug-a-boo so indefinite that none can explain just what is meant, the old bogie of "McKayism?" Just what is "McKayism" in the first place? What does it mean? What good or harm has whatever it is ever done to anybody? Of course, "McKayism" in general means the activities of Frank D. McKay of Grand Rapids. But what has he ever done that is reprehensible? Nobody connected with this newspaper owes Mr. McKay a penny or a favor of any kind. We've blasted him when we thought he was wrong and we've boosted him when we thought he was right. We've heard many stories of this or that that McKay has done or is guilty of. We've tried to check up on these alleged misdemeanors and when we have come to the end of the trail, we've found no substance there.

McKay has sold tires to the State. What of it? The State must buy tires and the purchases are made on sealed bids. If the low bid happened to have McKay's name on it, should it be rejected and the State pay a higher price for the tires?

Same way with many other things charged against McKay. He has put some of his friends into State jobs. Do you happen to know anybody at all active in politics who hasn't done just that whenever he has had an opportunity? How do you suppose men and women get political jobs anyway? McKay has been active in politics a long time. He has been successful more times than not. Why? Because he is one of the best organizers and detail men you ever met in your life. He'll go out and organize down to the city block and do it thoroughly. He delights in that sort of work. Anything wrong about it? How does anybody get elected captain of the baseball team or leader of the Sunday school class except by some sort of organizer, has a tremendously wide acquaintance and is a hard worker. That's "McKayism" and that's all it is. The rest is conversation.

HARVEST FESTIVAL
Harvest time is stock-up time. If you look on the first page of section three, you will see there a bumper crop of values. Two strong horses are pulling the load, and what a load. We refer you to page one, section three, so you may know what it's all about. There are some real values from a score of merchants. It is surely a clean-cut bumper crop.

Sends News Fine Box of Apples

J. E. Wells, director of public relations of Benton Harbor Fruit Market, sent the editor of the Holland City News a large box of assorted apples, the very finest, each apple naked in tissue. The paper is embellished in red, white and blue, with the map of Michigan in the background. It is a round label just fitting each apple. Mr. Wells, in a letter, states in part as follows:

"Although but few of the items showed it, this cash-to-grower project also is a point of sale for such products—from 5 to 8 million packs a year as a matter of fact. "The market is as interested in sales of these products grown near you as in its own. When farm commodities in your area are readily sold by producers in your area at satisfactory prices, the patrons on our market receive better bids and everybody is just a little happier."

"The Benton Harbor market is not operated for profit, but serves as a meeting place for buyers from 26 states and the thousands of growers living in this area. For fifty years the city has served in this capacity. The present 16-acre trading area representing an investment of $200,000 is a monument to farm-city co-operation."

"The community is proud of its market and the market's products. Not all of these carry well in ordinary movement, but apples do. I am sending you by express a box of local apples and hope that on your vacation next summer you can visit the market and see how the wheels go around."

HAMILTONIANS TO PUT ON PLAY

The Hamilton Community Players will present the first play of the season, "The Enemy" by Channing Pollock on Thursday and Friday evenings of next week, Nov. 10 and 11 at the Hamilton Community Auditorium at 8:00 o'clock. The play, in four acts, is a stirring story depicting war-time experiences during the period of the World War, and is not without comedy, although of a serious nature. A cast of ten characters will enact the various roles: Carl Behrend, a poetic dreamer and playwright, Bernard Voorhorst; Paul Arndt, symbolic of all war braves, Elaine Ashley; Beruska, the maid, Harriet Van Doornik; Bruce Gordon, an English student, John Brink, Jr.; August Behrend, Carl's father, a pompous Austrian profiteer, Donald Lohman; Jan, Carl's friend and servant, Marvin Kaper; Dr. Arndt, Paul's father, professor and philosopher from whose lips fall the great message of the play, Rev. I. Scherpenisse; Mizzie Wickelman, symbolic of all those carried away by waving flags, but sobered by grim reality, Wilma Mae Nyenhuis; Kurt, Mizzie's six-year-old son, Jarvis Hulst; Fritz Winckelman, a newspaper man, Fred Johnson. All action takes place in the Arndt flat in Vienna. Music throughout the evening will be furnished by Donald Kramer, marimba player, accompanied by Alvin Schutmaat, pianist, both of Holland.

Dr. Pieters' topic is "Checking Up on Spiritual Life," and music for the service will feature Harold Van Heuvelen and Caroline Kremers, violinists.

Wednesday the discourse will deal with the ever-important problem of Christian standards, "By What Standards Shall Christian Conduct Be Determined?" Thimian's "Immortal, Invisible" will be rendered by the Chapel choir. Career Choosing forms Thursday's theme, as Dr. Stauffer discusses "How Shall I Think of Myself and My Life Work?" A missionary meeting was held at the church Sunday evening. Miss Jennie Stielstra, missionary to Africa, gave an interesting talk about her work there. A male quartet consisting of Messrs. Harold Pauler, Elmer Bosch, Martin Ver Hage and Herbert Heyboer rendered vocal selections.

During the past week Mr. John Meengs was taken to the Butterworth hospital where he underwent an operation.

IS MICHIGAN HEADED for BANKRUPTCY?

LET'S CONSIDER THE FACTS

(1) State payrolls increased more than $9,000,000 in 18 months — the greatest boost of tax-supported wages in Michigan history. Lack of building space at Lansing for Murphy's job army has even forced several agencies to move to Detroit.

(2) Steadily mounting deficit in the state treasury. On January 1, 1937, the treasury had a cash balance of $8,775,000. On June 30, 1938 — 18 months later, the officially admitted deficit was $8,741,487 — making a red ink total on June 30, of $17,000,000 UPWARD. And this does not include, in any way, the millions appropriated by the legislature at the special session in August for welfare needs. TODAY the Murphy deficit is somewhere between $20,000,000 and $30,000,000, and mounting every day!

What are YOU going to do about it? Old Age pensions have been reduced because tax money has been squandered! Wouldn't it be better for the unemployed to have adequate state funds for their needs, and what is more important, honest-to-goodness jobs in industry and business?

Restore Sound Government to Michigan! Restore business confidence by the American way! Michigan workers are not satisfied with only the Dole; they are entitled to real jobs.

JOHN DETHMERS MAKES REPLY TO DEMOCRATIC LITERATURE

"It has been called to my attention that certain Democratic literature in the current campaign contains criticism of the Republican party for not having nominated me as its candidate for Attorney General. This is an attempt by the 'New Deal' party to beguile my friends and supporters into voting wrong next Tuesday.

"The issues involved in the coming election, affecting our very form of government and the preservation of the liberties of the individual citizen, are paramount to a consideration of the political aspirations of any individual.

"I will vote a straight Republican ticket on Nov. 8th, as the sure way to curb radicalism and preserve Americanism. I hope that all my friends, Republicans and Democratic alike, will do likewise."

JOHN R. DETHMERS

Mr. Dethmers has been out in the state speaking in behalf of the entire Republican ticket for the last two weeks, and will continue until election eve. Democrats seem to be worried about the political destinies of Republican candidates. Literature sets forth that Fitzgerald repudiated Landon, Dickinson, and "our prosecutor," John Dethmers, to which Mr. Dethmers takes exception.

It seems rather far-fetched to make such accusations when Fitzgerald was the nominee for governor on the same ticket with Landon two years ago, and spoke continuously for the Republican ticket throughout the state. The Dickinson matter has been fully exploded in many state papers, indicating that the meeting at which both Republicans and Democrats gathered together was more of a kidding fest between candidates of both parties, and Democrats are now using it as political ammunition. Mr. Dickinson, candidate for lieutenant governor, does not seem to be worried about it, for he is "stumping" the state for the Republican ticket.

Until recently, the Democrats never took much stock in Chase Osborne, the Republican, and the Republican doctrine. Just now his pronouncements are recognized. When Frank Fitzgerald was first groomed for governor at the little town of Grand Ledge, Chase was there, using his best queen's English, and that's some English, extolling the merits of their native son, Frank, and those neighborly folks beamed with satisfaction. According to the literature it would seem some Democrats are extremely concerned for fear of the non-success of Republican candidates. This is a new phase in politics, it appears.

are living the writer does not know.

Mr. Van Ry was on other celebrated cases while deputy, and later as sheriff, and his fame as a menace to wrongdoers is well-known throughout the state.

During Mr. Van Ry's administration as chief of police it can be truthfully said that there have been few major crimes, and on the whole this has been a very law-abiding city in every way. Police departments in other cities have always been the "butt" of politics, but in Holland that has never been the case. The chief and the board members are working out law-enforcement to the best interest of the city in which they are serving. Mr. Van Ry never was an officer who ordered arrests simply for the showing it would make, for his motto was to advise the individual of wrongdoing rather than otherwise. In many cases violations were a matter of ignorance. The officers on the whole have been helpful to citizens and tourists alike.

There is one phase of Mr. Van Ry's regime that is very commendable and for which he has the esteem of all. Hundreds of cases come up, having to do with juveniles—lads who sometime go beyond the law. Mr. Van Ry calls these youngsters in, gives them fatherly advice, and in extreme cases also calls in the parents, and together they collaborate what is best to do. The sentence to these thoughtless youngsters is a severe lecture they will not soon forget. Mr. Van Ry feels that if a boy is wayward and irresponsible, the parents, who are the innocent parties, bear the brunt of fines and the heartbreak of prison sentences. They, in the last analysis, are the sufferers. After Mr. Van Ry has given his lecture, the boys, and sometimes girls, do not go astray often again.

Mr. Van Ry was not always an officer of the law. When a lad, he was galley boy on several of the windjammers, one in particular was the R. Kanters, captained by Baas Van Ry, father of the chief. He also sailed on the A. Plugger, and was sailor's mate on other sailing vessels. He has full captain's papers on the Great Lakes, and was captain of the Lizzie Walsh, the Harvey Watson, and the E. D. Ferry, all steamers from this port. It was while Frank Van Ry was a galley boy on a sailing ship, tied up at the pier at Grand Haven, that he saw the large side-wheeler, Alpena, leave port into a Lake Michigan as smooth as glass. There was an ominous black cloud on the horizon, however, and the lightkeeper, cupping his hands, called Captain Napier, on the wheelhouse, that the barometer was falling fast and to head for Racine rather than for Chicago.

The captain called back that he thought he could make it, but before many hours had passed the otherwise calm Lake Michigan was lashed into a fury such as mariners had not witnessed before. Not a soul was saved from either passengers or crew. A great deal of the wreckage, including the piano, and the sign over the wheelhouse, washed ashore to what is now Lakewood Farm, that for many years was called Alpena Beach. The Holland City News has one of the ventilators found there. The wreck occurred in 1880 during October. This gripping Great Lake story has been repeated often and is well-known by our readers.

Mr. Van Ry's resignation takes effect January 1st. He has now reached the evening of his life, is 77 years old, and in spite of his age he still makes an excellent chief. The News congratulates Chief Frank Van Ry upon a record as a law-enforcement officer that cannot be surpassed. His regimes have been clean, wholesome, and efficient. There was not even a semblance of a stain on that record all these years. The News further extends the wish that Mr. Van Ry will spend the remainder of his days in happiness and contentment, for he surely deserves that as a true and faithful servant of his beloved city.

FRANK D. FITZGERALD FOR GOVERNOR

If thrift and efficiency deserve reward, then Frank D. Fitzgerald deserves it. From a newsboy, he became a page boy in the state capitol. He climbed steadily ahead through earnest endeavor, until he became the business manager of the Road Commission, where he did such an excellent job that he was promoted to deputy secretary of state. Then he was elected secretary of state, one of the most able officials ever in that office. Then he was promoted to the highest office in the gift of the Michigan people; namely, the governor of the state. Frank Fitzgerald possibly knows Michigan and its needs better than any one man, having been so closely identified with it for nearly a quarter of a century. He again heads the Republican ticket as the nominee for governor, winning in the primaries by over 200,000. Those who know Frank Fitzgerald know of his worth, and there are a great many who know him.

A FARMER HUNTER HAS 47 LAUGHS OVER STUFFED PHEASANT

A farmer living near Hastings, Mich., who believes that his name had better be withheld, reports that he had 47 laughs on hunters this pheasant season.

Though a hunter himself and in full sympathy with fellow hunters who come out from the cities and towns to the farm lands, the Barry county farmer also has a sense of humor and indulged it generously with a stuffed pheasant. He shot the pheasant himself a year ago. At the start of this season he placed the stuffed bird in a prominent position near a building on his place.

Hunters coming along in an automobile and sighting what appeared to be an easy shot, would jam on their brakes, jump out and blaze away. The farmer counted 47 cars which stopped.

After a few days virtually all of the stuffing was knocked out of the stuffed pheasant.

THE NEW J. C. PENNY STORE OPENS WITH MR. PRICE AS THE MANAGER

Opening of the J. C. Penny Co. store at its new location, Eighth St. and River Ave., gave Holland buyers an opportunity Thursday morning to witness some of the latest improvements in the architecture of retail establishments.

Fireproof brick, steel and concrete are the materials used in the new store to create a practical combination of utility and beauty. Three days of an opening bargain sale Thursday, Friday and Saturday are celebrating the event, to which Penny store officials have looked forward for months.

Earl F. Price will continue as manager of the new store. He is in full control of the unit here, having authority to operate it in a way that he thinks is to the best interests of both the company and its customers.

Women's furnishings, work clothes and shoes are located on the main floor of the new building. The ready-to-wear departments, foundation garments and an increased children's department are located on the balcony.

The central office of the Penny organization has a large staff of buyers, Mr. Price points out, and the store here derives advantages from that merchandising service.

The old Vander Veen block has certainly undergone a transformation. The entire corner, erected by the late Engbert Vander Veen, pioneer lock and tin smith, has been changed to such an extent that the former owner, if here, would not be able to recognize it. The remodeling has been going on for the past three months, and that corner is now more brightly than it was before. It was an expenditure of approximately $50,000 in the rebuilding of this whole block.

West End Again To Get Streets Lit This Winter

RESIDENTS ENTER CONTRACT TO HAVE CONSUMERS SERVICE NEXT THREE YEARS

The Zealand West Enders, who have been a year without street lighting, on Tuesday night, Nov. 1, again had their streets lit up and are now enjoying the advantages of an urban community in that respect.

The community lying outside of Zealand City on the west side have had a difficult situation because they are under the legal regulation of the Holland township board, and cannot legally enter into a contract for public service without the consent of that board. On the other hand, the township board can hardly be expected to provide street lighting except on the special assessment basis, a thing the district decided against a year ago.

It has been the claim of the Westenders that the contributions in general taxes should be sufficient to provide this service because it has a high valuation of property and it requires no other unusual demands upon the township treasury. In other words, this district contributes more than its share to the general township tax income, and as a result is entitled to this consideration. Recently the streets were graded and black surfaced at the expense of the adjacent property owners, which they claim is just one more reason why the township should provide this street lighting.

It has finally been agreed upon that the township shall pay 40% of the cost of street lighting and snow removal for the coming three years and that the residents shall pay the remaining 60% of the cost. This problem was finally solved when a committee of the citizens solicited the district for the necessary amount, which averaged about $2.50 per resident. All but six have signed up to contribute their share of the cost. Those not signing were excused because of unfortunate circumstances.

The service contract entered with Consumers Power Co. provides for 16 street lights at an annual cost of $31.00 each, or a total sum of $496.00. This sum added to estimated cost of snow removal and other services averaged about $2.50 per resident—Zealand Record.

The "problem of the month" in international affairs was presented to members of the Holland chapter of the American association of University Women Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ralph Eash. The program was arranged by Miss Margaret Gibbs, international relations chairman. Miss Evelyn Stokette, Miss Adelaide Dykhuizen and Miss Gertrude Stokette took part in the formal presentation of the subject. Mrs. James Warner, president of A. A. U. W., presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Eash was assisted by Mrs. J. J. Brower, Miss Ruth Westveer and Miss Lavina Cappon at the social hour which followed the program.

New officers were elected Wednesday night at a meeting of the Sensational Sub-Deb club at the home of Shirley Kardux. Officers include Betty Morrell, president; Barbara Heneveld, vice president; Phyllis Pelgrim, corresponding secretary; Shirley Kardux, recording secretary; Vivian Tardiff, treasurer, and Betty Winslow, scribe.

The Rev. George Trotter pronounced the invocation Monday night.

Wednesday noon approximately 85 were present for the luncheon in the Literary club. Chest officials pointed out that a maximum of one cent in each dollar contributed to the Community Chest goes for administration expenses because of the volunteer system of running the drive here in contrast to the system in other cities of having hired professional workers. Grand Rapids is considered to have one of the country's low-cost Community Chest systems, officials said, but the cost for administration and incidentals there is eleven cents on the dollar, compared with one cent here.

Included in the donations of services which keep costs here low are the printing work, contributed mostly by the Stokette-Van Huis Printing Co., and the auditing, given by Maihofer, Moore and De Long.

"A 'huddle bucket' is being passed at each of the meals at the Literary club to defray expenses of the luncheons. Committees from the Woman's Literary Club prepared the meals, which were served by groups of the Camp Fire girls and their leaders.

Prof. A. E. Lampen of Hope college pronounced the invocation Wednesday.

Charles R. Sligh Furniture Co. has made a donation of $377.26, it was reported Thursday noon.

Bill Dieken officiated at the piano as the 85 workers present joined in group singing. Thursday's luncheon was in charge of Mrs. John Eaton and Mrs. S. W. Merriam. The Rev. George Trotter pronounced the invocation.

Funeral services for Miss Magdalena M. De Pree, 73, former librarian at Hope college and prominent leader here, were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Louis van Hartesveldt home at 115 East Ninth St. The Rev. Albertus Pieters of the Western Theological seminary and Dr. Wynand Wichers, president of Hope college, officiated. The Rev. Paul E. Hinkamp, Hope college pastor, was in charge of commitment at the burial in the family plot at Pilgrim Home cemetery.

After an illness of more than a year, Miss De Pree died late Sunday night at her home at 287 Central Ave. Dr. and Mrs. Jacob Van der Meulen and Mr. and Mrs. Jan De Pree, early Zealand pioneers, were her grandparents. Miss De Pree was born in Bethel, Iowa, to the Rev. Peter J. and Mary De Pree. She is survived by four brothers, John, Jacob and James De Pree, all of Holland, and Con De Pree of California; three sisters, Mrs. Alice M. Dissette of Indianapolis, Ind., Mrs. Louis van Hartesveldt of Holland, and Mrs. May Thoms of Arabia.

Miss De Pree served as librarian at the college here for 20 years, resigning because of poor health in 1935. She was secretary to the late Congressman and then Minister of The Netherlands G. J. Diekema in his law offices here. When he was elected to Washington, she aided him in his offices there, and was secretary to the Spanish War Claims commission of which Mr. Diekema was chairman. In Holland, Miss De Pree was a former member of the Century club and a devout member of Hope reformed church.

Pallbearers at the funeral Tuesday included Vernon Ten Cate, James De Pree, Raymond Kuipers, Philip van Hartesveldt, Adrian Van Putten and Dr. Wells Thoms. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

"Service and teamwork" was the theme of Mayor Geerlings' talk. The organization of workers for the drive was explained by Dr. Leenhouts. The system of having team captains report to C. Krag's auditing committee for high speed reports on the amount raised at any given report date was explained by Mr. Tahaney.

"Our job" was the subject chosen by Rabbi Folkman, the principal speaker Monday night. Commenting on the work of the Boy Scouts, one of the organizations which receives funds from the Community Chest, he said that he lived in Jackson for five years, and did not find one man in the prison there who had been a Scout, although there were many former Boy Scouts at the head of the community.

"Where Can I Go Hunting?" Many Nimrods Ask

Private Clubs Rent Land and Many Farmers Refuse to Open Their Farms to Hunters

A very interesting article by Albert Stoll, Jr., in the Detroit News indicates the difficulties experienced by the thousands of hunters to find open country upon which to do their hunting. The avenues to many hunters have been closed as this contribution, dealing with the problem, shows:

(By Albert Stoll, Jr.) The past two weeks of the open hunting season on pheasants and rabbits found thousands of licensed small game hunters without a place over which to hunt unless they trespassed on posted property. The situation is becoming increasingly alarming each year and it begins to appear that the continuance of free hunting by hunters who are forced to look for their sport on the farmlands and woodlots of private owners may some day become a privilege of the past. State conservation officials are as much worried over this problem as are the hunters. They expect that the Williamson plan of controlled hunting would aid in solving the problem but if anything the 500,000 acres of hunting covers operating under this plan has failed to service five per cent of the hunters looking for ground over which to hunt.

The Williamson plan which calls for co-operation between farmland owners and the State makes it necessary for the hunter to call upon the owner of the posted land, ask for the privilege of hunting and if granted he is given a ticket without cost. He must leave his car in the farmer's yard and return after the hunt to be checked out and his kill examined. But the trouble with this plan is that local hunters are usually favored with tickets and it is difficult for a hunter from any large city to convince the farmer that he is entitled to one.

Perhaps a much larger area that falls under the Williamson plan is closed to public hunting by owners of private estates, subdivisions and abandoned farm lands. The owners are fully protected under the Horton trespass law and even though much of this land is not posted, so long as it is enclosed the public has no right to hunt over it without the consent of the owner.

The prohibition against Sunday hunting in 15 counties surrounding Detroit has not added to the joys of the shooter. It is the one day of the week he has free and to be prevented from hunting at that time doesn't set well.

Many hunters believe some attempt should be made by the State to double the small game hunting license fee, making it two dollars and take the extra dollar and lease hunting grounds all through southern Michigan for public use. This would bring in approximately $500,000 a year which ought to be sufficient to lease a considerable area and at the same time give the property owner some revenue. But those against anything that resembles paid hunting object to this but offer no other solution.

Marshes Closed. The same situation prevails in our duck marshes. Many of the extensive and best marshes along the Great Lakes are in private ownership or under lease and the public of course is excluded from these areas. Inland lakes and adjacent marshes are likewise posted and the few public marshes on the Great Lakes cannot begin to service the unattached hunters.

We have never experienced a year when dissatisfaction among the licensed hunters of the State has been so widespread. They want a place to hunt without being ordered off property or violating any law. But they have a hard time finding it unless they have farmer friends who own property or belong to some club possessing hunting grounds. Just what the solution will be is something no one can predict.

In many instances hunters have banded together and leased the hunting rights on favorable lands. They pay the owner a good fee and are accorded full hunting privileges. Of course this removes the land from public use and further restricts the free-lance hunter's activities.

It has been suggested that some form of payment be made by the individuals to the farmland owners for hunting privileges. This could be so much a gun per day or so much a bird or rabbit bagged. In this way the land owner is compensated for the game crop he land produces and supports. Certainly the use of his land as a game incubator should bring him some returns and so long as the hunter is willing to pay for this the State should have no objection.

Property Damage. In this discussion consideration should be given to the relations between the farmland owner and the hunting public. Due to the practice of a few hoodlum hunters relations between the two have been badly strained. Stock and poultry have been killed, fences cut or broken down, fires started, fruit stolen and every living thing that flies or runs has been made the target of these killers' guns. This action on the part of a small minority hasn't helped to encourage the farmer to throw his lands open to public hunting. He seeks property protection and deserves it and the law says he shall have it. There would have been far less land posting and more cordial relations between the hunter and farmer if all licensed hunters were sportsmen.

HARVEST FESTIVAL. Harvest time is stock-up time. If you look on the first page of section three, you will see there is a bumper crop of values. Two strong horses are pulling the load, and what a load. We refer you to page one, section three, so you may know what it's all about.

There are some real values from a score of merchants. It is surely a clean-cut bumper crop.

STORE INVITING YOUNGSTERS TO SOAP WINDOWS

Howard Vair, who operates a candy business at 16057 Hamilton avenue, Detroit, Saturday afternoon injected a soothing note into an otherwise troubled world. In line with a declared policy of art for Halloween's sake he announced a window-soaping contest for children to be held on the plate glass that fronts his store.

"I figure they'll soap 'em anyway," he said, "so I thought it ought to be done artistically, with prizes awarded for the best pictures. This is an added attraction because every year the kids bring us apples which we dip in red candy and put on a stick. Year before last we dipped 5,000 apples. But the soaping contest is new and the kids seem to think it's a pretty good idea."

The soap pictures were judged by three officials appointed by Miss Edna Brown, art director of Highland Park high school. The contest began after school Monday.

Cats Get Share From Milk Yield

Cats living on farms in Michigan are getting their share of milk for food on the average dairy farm, for a recent survey made by herd association testers is a guide.

Cow testers found the average farm has one dog and two cats. Farm operators estimated the average farm gives these three enemies of the mice and rats a little less than two pounds (a quart) of milk daily.

Figures obtained on the cats and dogs were incidental to the purpose of the work which was to discover if families on dairy farms are using dairy products to a degree that would permit dairymen to boast a belief in the healthful properties of milk and dairy products such as butter, ice cream, cheese and cream.

A. C. Baltzer, extension dairyman at Michigan State College, reports the average family enrolled in dairy herd improvement work in Michigan reports consuming three pints of milk per person each day. This is far above the national average which is but seven-tenths of a pint of milk daily.

"One out of every 15 families in the United States depends upon the dairy industry for a livelihood," says Baltzer. "It's a three and one-half billion dollar industry."

Dairy industry promoters hope to effect increased milk and dairy products consumption. They point out that health benefits alone are sufficient reason, but that increased prosperity of the dairy farmer is another good reason for eating up dairy surpluses.

NEW LICENSE PLATES TO STIMULATE BUSINESS

New 1939 license plates were placed on sale this year on October 27, 1938, by Leon D. Case, Secretary of State, for the express purpose of stimulating the sale of new and used cars.

The new 1939 plates of black lettering on buff may be purchased for either new or used motor vehicles. The only restriction is that on cars already licensed, the owner must surrender the old plates before purchasing new ones. Case points out that the collection of the 1938 plates when new ones are purchased is required by law, as the statute allows only one registration for each motor vehicle; also, the old plates might get into the hands of someone who would cause serious trouble for the original owner, as these 1938 plates are good on the highways until March 1, 1939.

The 1939 plates may also be purchased for half price for cars that are going to be traded in or are not going to be operated after March 1, 1939.

Junior C. of C. Halloween Fete Attracts 5000

FIRST PROJECT OF NEW ORGANIZATION HELD AT RIVERVIEW PARK; IS HUGE SUCCESS

A crowd estimated at 5,000 and including 3,500 children, turned out Monday night for Holland's first Halloween party, sponsored by the newly-organized Junior Chamber of Commerce. The program included a parade through Holland to Riverview park, and entertainment, prizes and refreshments.

Joan De Kraker won the girl's bicycle, offered for the best young lady's costume. The bicycle for the best boy's outfit went to Gerald Schipka. In the Jack-o'-lantern contest, James Ewing took first, and Bob Zwiers was awarded second place.

At 6:30 the parade began, and lasted about a half hour, being led by the Pied Piper of Hamelin, C. Dalman, an old Holland martial band fife. The procession, at least two miles long, included clowns, the American Legion band—with sheets over their entire bodies to make the bandmen look like ghosts—the Holland high school band, and eight units of costumed school children, divided according to schools.

At Riverview park, the Holland high band exhibited drill formations and played two numbers from "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," "Whistle While You Work" and "Heigh-Ho." The audience sang these numbers.

Clowns Peenie Daley and Roy Young exhibited their skill in a dance with a dummy, a ball game and a photography contest in which the camera was full of fireworks. Fifty-five minutes of sound moving pictures next claimed the attention of the audience as a Rip Van Winkle cartoon, the Voice of Experience, portraying a boy's love for his dog, and the feature, "Robinson Crusoe," the island castaway made famous by Daniel De Foe, flashed across the screen.

More clown acts followed, with more fireworks. Then the 70 prizes were awarded as each successful contestant was called out on the field. The party was concluded with the distribution of 1,000 pounds of candy.

A complete list of prize winners follows: Boys' costumes: Earl Van Lente, Billy Plomp, Wayne Lemmen, Paul Portney, Junior Hill, Russell Horn, Wayne Reed, Rex Young, Willis Nash, Bill Gilcrest, Harold Knoll, Don Vanden Berg, Junior Fialova, Jack Gallen, De Haan and Hall, Billy and Tommy Harken, Warren Victor.

Roger Gunn, Dale Miller, Willard Pelgrim, Monte C. Dyer, Harry Fuller, Bobby Greenwood, Robert Kuiper, Jack Glupker and Billy Bos.

Girls' costumes: Betty Lou Kullen, Peggy Prins, Janice Hacklander, Rose McCormick, Caroline Scholten, Joyce Brandt, Julia De Witt, Julia and Helen Hoffman, Arona Vander Have, Sonja Hop, Leona McFall, Betty Kuiper, Gloria E. Benigsenberg, Donna Hoatlin, Antoinette Van Bragt, Dorothy Batema, Joyce Piersma, Lorraine Victor, Jean Tubergen, Katherine Haveman, Elaine Myer, Georgia Smeege, Frieda Harris, Z. Bilek, Phyllis Victor, Betty Van Weelden and Shirley Knoll.

The officers of the Junior Chamber of Commerce who took a deep interest in promoting this Halloween holiday for the young folks are: president, "Jim" Boter; first vice president, Ray Kronmeyer; second vice president, Harold Yonker; secretary, Harold Klaasen; and treasurer, Melvin Van Tatenhove.

This is our first attempt at anything of this kind," Mr. Zickler said. "Although it was an experiment with us this year, the party will be run more systematically next year—we have already filed ideas gained this season for use next Halloween. The committee feels that we've had wonderful cooperation from the parents and the schools. We have already received several letters from school children thanking us for a good time."

The committee wishes to thank the merchants who made the contests possible by donating prizes."

Thanks were also expressed to John Klingenberg, who supplied the sound pictures at cost.

MUST HAVE BEEN SOME GOOD IN PARTY

A dispatch from Phoenix, Arizona states that the first prize of $1,000 in the Republican nationwide contest for young orators went to John Janson, a Phoenix junior college student, a democratic son. The finals were held at Washington Tuesday night.

$25,000,000 Goes Begging

A sign of returning sanity may be seen in the fact that more than 200 PWA offers of grants, amounting in all to some $25,000,000, are going begging.

When the new PWA pump-priming program was being launched last June it was discovered that there were many projects on file for which application for funds had been made, but for which funds had not been authorized, when funds for the earlier PWA program ran out.

The PWA wired the communities in whose names these appeals for "free money" were made and asked them if they still wanted the projects. Some of the applications dated back to 1935.

According to the compiled statistics almost half of these communities wired back: "No, thank you."

They had had time to think the matter over and had decided that they did not want to saddle themselves with a debt of $55 in order to get a $45 grant from the government.

The taxpayers showed themselves in this connection more prudent than their officials had been; for in every case "the rejected projects were voted down after local officials had applied for a grant from the PWA."

There are still plenty of communities in the country willing to saddle themselves with bond issues in order to get handouts from Washington on a basis of $45 of Federal money for $55 of local money.

At the same time it is encouraging to find many other communities waking up to the fact that the money handed out to them from Washington would be their own money, which they had first handed out to the government in the form of taxes, and that on top of that they would have to run in debt to the extent of $55 for every $45 they got from the PWA.

That sort of bargain went over big in the hysterical days following the first depression.

Today it doesn't look so good to communities that have their feet on the ground again and are once more able to think the thing through.

But It's True

ZEELAND STREET GETS TERRIBLE DRUBBING

(Zeeland Record)

The section of South Elm street between Central avenue and Lincoln street, Zeeland, received a tremendous transformation Wednesday forenoon when the city's "dirt pusher" cranked into it, completing a considerable transformation before the day was over.

This part of Elm street has always been a considerable mud-hole except when the weather was too dry for mud—and many are now wondering whether this will be an improvement or make it worse.

The "pusher" literally shoved the unwanted dirt into a pile at the end of the street where it will be loaded onto trucks and be hauled away. There was probably one-half foot of dirt removed from the top of the street, on an average, which will at least permit the water to drain from the sidewalk where it has usually puddled to the discomfort of the pedestrian.

The grading was done for the purpose of better drainage but there will be no other improvement at this time.

(Grand Haven Tribune)

G. J. Baxter, with the Stiles Detective Co. of Grand Rapids, spending a day off in this city, could not indulge in a vacation when he saw anything suspicious going on, and as the result, took three young men into custody for city police officers.

The men are George Champion, 20, and Edward and Frank Reichard, 19 and 17, respectively, who will be charged with breaking and entering in an attempt at larceny from the warehouse of Nathaniel Robbins.

Baxter had driven to the foot of Franklin street at about 8:30 p. m. Friday to watch the operations of the Gen. Meade when he noticed the trio drive down the same street and later saw them carrying two cases of anti-freeze from the warehouse. Quick to sense that all was not well, he stepped up to them and before they realized it the young men were in the toils of the law. A call to the local police office brought an officer who took them into custody. Evidence shows that the lock on the front door of the warehouse had been pried off.

Next regular meeting Nov. 10, V. F. W. hall, 179 River ave. Ladies' Auxiliary meets same evening G. A. R. room, City Hall.

Armistice Day comes but once a year, so everybody out to our V. F. W. annual Armistice Day banquet. A good program is also included.

Last week Wednesday a large delegation of the Auxiliary visited the Grand Haven V. F. W. Auxiliary. Two of our Post members played the part of chauffeurs and on the way home they were about to be kidnapped by the Auxiliary. A good thing the State Police patrol the highway and escort cars into town. You fellows almost lost your Past Commander and Sr. Vice-Commander.

Last meeting we had a large turnout and knowing the Wests were moving out of town, the Ladies' Auxiliary was invited to our hall, where we had a farewell party on the Wests and Comrade Tony Westrate, who is going to the Grand Rapids soldiers' home for the winter. Also celebrated the "Welcome Home" of Comrade Peter Hardenberg, who returned from Hines hospital. Sixty-seven were present and a good time was had by all. Lunch was served by Mrs. Paul Wojahn and her committee.

Don't forget to turn out next meeting the day before Armistice Day, and most of all don't forget the V. F. W. Armistice Day banquet and program.

We hear of hunters shooting dogs, chickens and even cows by mistake. Glad to hear our comrades wear after pheasants and "got pheasants."

We now have a detail going out after delinquent members and those that forget about the meetings, so you comrades better turn out.

There will be no fun party Friday, Nov. 11, it being Armistice Day and our annual get together in the form of a banquet, but we will have a feather party Tuesday evening, Nov. 22.

Don't forget our fun party Friday night, 8 p. m. Public invited.

OLD SPAN SUPERVISOR RAPS NEW WELFARE ACTHolland Assessor Holds Bill Will Increase County Costs

(Muskegon Chronicle)

Ottawa county board of supervisors will be obliged to raise $25,000 for administrative purposes and $30,000 to $70,000 to pay its 50 per cent of general welfare costs, if the new state welfare act passes in the referendum Nov. 8, Peter H. Van Ark, Holland city assessor and member of the supervisors' finance committee, declares in a prepared statement. He is second vice-president of the state supervisors' association.

Mr. Van Ark said the total cost of welfare in Ottawa county in 1937, paid by the state and local agencies was $192,722 and that the expense to the local units, cities, townships and county, totalled $28,000. Mr. Van Ark points to his own city, Holland, as contributor of the major share of the $28,000, the Holland welfare expense being $1,000 monthly.

The entire state welfare act is attacked by Mr. Van Ark, who claims it will create a powerful, politically controlled commission, handling more funds than all other state departments and boards combined.

Rep. Nelson A. Miles of Holland has also joined in the attack on the act. Ottawa county board of supervisors recently adjourned its October session until after the election to await the outcome of the referendum. Henry Slaughter of Tallmadge, chairman of the finance committee, advised the board that its budget, presented in tentative form, would need complete revision if the welfare acts are made law.

COAST GUARDS RESCUE
ELIZA AND ELISE

A rescue crew from the Holland Coast Guard station towed the disabled fishing tug Eliza L. into Saugatuck harbor Saturday afternoon with four men aboard who had not eaten for nearly 24 hours.

The tug had left Saugatuck Friday noon. When she failed to return from the fishing grounds at dusk, fishermen became alarmed and reported the missing boat to the Coast Guard at midnight. Guardsmen found the tug drifting ten miles northwest of Holland harbor with a broken timing shaft at 10:40 Saturday morning.

Members of the tug's crew had not eaten since the previous afternoon. They include Ray Peel and Fred Purdy. The rescue crew consisted of Capt. E. J. Clemons, commander; E. M. Foster, E. O. Feddick and A. M. O'Beck.

Sunday night Coast Guardsmen towed the Elise II, Grand Haven cabin cruiser, to Jesiek's boat yard after she had run out of gasoline near the harbor entrance.

Nelson Dyke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Dyke of College ave. and 22nd st., is recovering from an operation to which he submitted last week in Holland hospital.

Three cases of whooping cough and one of scarlet fever comprised Holland's record of contagious diseases during October, Dr. William M. Tappen, city health officer, said in presenting his monthly report to the board of health Monday morning.

SUNDAY SCHOOL
LESSON

November 6, 1938.
Honoring Our Parents—Exodus 20:12; Luke 2:46-52; Ephesians 6:1-4.

Henry Geerlings

Every student of the commandments considers the fourth one of the most important of them all. Next to our duties to God are our duties to our parents, for to them we owe our very being. They have done more for us than we can ever repay.

Respect for parents has always been considered a duty of the highest importance. It is placed before the command which forbids murder. The Romans used the same word dutifulness to the gods and dutifulness to parents.

It is clear from this commandment, and from the promise that is attached to it, that we are guilty of something more than undutifulness to parents when we do not obey them. We are guilty of a sin against God. We are to obey our parents in the Lord, which means not only when their commands are in harmony with God's will, but also because such obedience is God's commandment. When there is mutual respect in the home, that family has something that is not to be found anywhere under the sun. The commandment lays emphasis upon the responsibility of children to their parents. While this assumes that the parents are worthy of this respect, it would also call upon children to honor upon children to honor and treat properly parents who may not fall all the conditions of ideal parenthood. Children should be kind of persons who naturally render to their parents the respect and honor due them.

True parents love their children irrespective of their conduct and behavior. While the conduct of children may bring discredit upon parents, sorrow to their hearts, and disappointment in their lives, yet Christian parents never withdraw their support and faithfulness even to wayward children. The true child will seek to live a life worthy of the confidence of parents. He will strive to be loyal rather than delinquent. He will seek to bring credit to the family name and render such care for parents as will provide peace and comfort and hope.

The commandment also implies that parents should respect their children as personalities. Each age has its own problems and characteristics. The child does not have an adult mind. The child is not a reflective thinker. The viewpoint is not the same as that of the parent. The wise parents will strive to understand the nature and needs of their children. Blind obedience should not be forced upon the child. When a request is made the child should know the reason. This will develop initiative and the personality under guidance and counsel will enable the child to deal with life situations when his parents are no longer with him. The Old Testament idea of children as the property of the parents and under their power, must give way to the New Testament idea of the child as a distinct soul entrusted to the parents by God for the purpose of preparing him to take his place in life here and in the life to come.

A splendid example of obedience to parents is found in the boyhood of Christ. His first years were satisfactory. He had a normal growth. It was free from everything that would mar His future. So many exceptional things were noticed in His unfolding that comment was made about them. He was under the favor of God and had the advantage of careful religious training. These two things pointed to a remarkable, strong foundation for future character. He began well. His body was not neglected, and that makes us sure that if we want to be valuable men and women we must have regard for our bodies, keep them from all sorts of hurtful habits. His mind was not left to find its own way, but was put under the guidance of His mother as well as having the school advantage of the village. He enjoyed to fine fellowship with good people, and this tended to make His boyhood helpful to Him. He began very early to acquire the fine art of living with folks, helping them and being helped by them. But chief of all was the special attention turned on His religious training. This was never allowed to be pushed aside.

At the age of twelve He accompanied His parents to the temple. He was regarded old enough to take upon Himself some of the vows of a personal religion. Here He met the great teachers. He was intensely interested in what He heard. He had a remarkable insight into the truth. He entered into discussions of doctrines, so much so that the eminent men of the temple were puzzled over His questions and answers. He was so wrapped up in what went on that He forgot to start home. His parents were shocked when He was missed. To their surprise they found Him in the temple. The conversation between him and his mother interests us. She told him how they had looked everywhere for Him. He surprised her with His answer.

He went down with His parents. It was not an easy thing to do. It would have been far more pleasant to remain in Jerusalem. It was the capital of the nation. It was filled with glorious things and interesting people. And what was there in little Nazareth? It was only a country town, very slow and very sleepy. There was nothing going on. Nobody lived in Nazareth, no scholars, no soldiers, no rulers, no great merchants, no men whom it was worthwhile to know. He went to that small town and laid Himself under the dominion of a carpenter and his peasant wife. He was obedient, even when the paths of obedience were not pleasant.

WHY

This Offer
Is Possible:

Since Karr spring constructions are made in Holland, and are more widely known here than anywhere else in the world for their comfort and durability qualities, we asked the Karr Company to get us some EXTRA VALUE mattresses that hundreds of Holland people would want. The result is the KARR SPECIAL mattress which we obtained because we know that Holland people will want lots of them. This quantity, plus the co-operation of the Karr Company makes it possible for us to offer greater value in the KARR SPECIAL mattress than in any other mattress we have ever sold at this price.

Permanently comfortable! It will never sag because each spring, twice-tempered for supreme resiliency, is coiled so that "hour-glass" shape which buoys up weight instead of flattening under pressure.

Will keep its shape! Its springs are wound in opposing right and left coils (see sketch above), so that if a spring tends to lean in one direction its neighbor's tendency to lean in the opposite direction will permanently equalize all tension and prevent any "lean."

FAVORABLE WEATHER at harvest time has made it possible for Michigan apple growers to offer a crop of unusually fine quality as they prepare to celebrate National Apple Week which begins Oct. 31 this year. Here Ruth Taylor, Michigan State College co-ed, looks over a shipment of Golden Delicious as they leave her father's orchard near Albion. These will join a market parade of McIntosh Red, Jonathan, Greenings and Northern Spies, all varieties for which Michigan is famous. The year's crop total in the state is estimated at 6½ million bushels, less than half of the 1937 record production. However, growers are still at it with their Michigan Apple Institute, a cooperative advertising movement, to tell the housewife that home grown apples excel in economy, flavor and health-giving qualities.

Mapes Earned It

(Grand Rapids Press)

Anything goes in a campaign, but it is doubtful if the crooning radio attack of young Harry Glass, Jr., on Representative Carl E. Mapes will go very far. His chief complaint seems to be that Mr. Mapes has drawn his salary every year, to which is added the contention that he hasn't done anything for the district. Coming from a young man who recently was drawing pay at the rate of $3,200 annually as a coal inspector although he has no training in that line, plus $3 a day for his legislative genius, this contribution to the campaign probably will be accepted by the public for no more than it is worth.

In return for the stipend given Mr. Mapes for representing the Fifth district in Washington he has served this constituency since 1912 with intelligence, honesty and independence. He has done things—contrary to Crooner Glass' opinion—for every harbor in the district, at every session; for anybody with a legitimate claim as a pensioner or service man or aggrieved party to a government difficulty; for the postoffice needs of the district; and for every group or individual who needed courteous help on a deserving project. Aside from these local matters Mr. Mapes has been at all times one of the most useful men in the house of representatives on matters affecting the entire nation, has headed important committees, is today the ranking Republican member of the committee on domestic and foreign commerce and the second ranking Republican member of the rules committee, and is a parliamentarian respected by both parties. As a liberal and independent congressman he was one of the drafters of the new securities and exchange law which is putting Wall Street under its first competent regulation. He has both voted and spoken fearlessly for his convictions.

Most of all, and it seems somewhat important these days, he has been free of the least complaint of machine bossism, padding his own canoe and quietly making friends by his personality and his record. His salary, incidentally, has been his only income. There is no congressman in Washington who has earned it any more justifiably than Mr. Mapes, radio crooners to the contrary notwithstanding.

Vote the Party of Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley

It is the party that has brought 60 years of prosperity under 13 Republican presidents.

Senator Arthur Vandenberg last night in his Newark, New Jersey speech to millions from stage and radio, said "The government is spending today $15.00 per minute and taking in $8.00 per minute. The accumulated deficit of $7.00 per minute will undoubtedly be charged to our children and children's children."

He said further: "The germ of centralized dictation permeates business as well as government. If it goes on much longer, we shall find industry and agriculture unescapably gripped and throttled by a process of complete regimentation and control from Washington."

And, at another point: "He, The President, already has one foot in the door that leads to autocracy—and no amount of popular trust in his benevolence can blind a vigilant, liberty-loving people to the menace of these trends because the unbroken lesson of history asserts that when instruments of tyranny are once created, somebody always comes along to use them."

HARVEST FESTIVAL

Harvest time is stock-up time. If you look on the first page of section three, you will see there is a bumper crop of values. Two strong horses are pulling the load, and what a load. We refer you to page one, section three, so you may know what it's all about. There are some real values from a score of merchants. It is surely a clean-cut bumper crop.

SINACH, green beans, cauliflower and mushrooms are all plentiful and inexpensive. Bulk carrots and beets are cheap and equally as nutritious as the more expensive bunched ones.

Prices of all kinds of meat and of poultry are very reasonable. The price of butter continues low and eggs are at about the same high level as in recent weeks.

Oranges and grapefruits are plentiful and cheap. Excellent box apples are reasonable as are all cooking apples except the McIntosh. Bosc and Anjou pears are replacing Bartletts. Three seasonable menus follow.

WOMAN'S DAY MAGAZINE IS UNIQUE

The November "Woman's Day" magazine has made its appearance. The cover page is a work of art and smacks very much of the coming Thanksgiving Day. On a large platter a turkey of equal size, all done up brown, is displayed in a kitchen window. However, on the other side of the window an expectant and hungry boy with terror, Pido, is looking at the succulent morsel enviously, but all they can have is a look for they are on the other side of the glass, looking in. The magazine is replete with excellent features. The usual column "Just Between Neighbors" occupies a page. "I Enjoy My Family," by Harold Lloyd, nationally known movie star, is shown. His whole family—he, mama, and the kiddies, are given in group pictures, showing all their activities. "Are You a Good Listener" comes in for a page. Mark Sullivan on "Current Events" and Deems Taylor on "Musical Programs" make excellent reading. Mrs. Roosevelt continues her second series on "The Americans I Admire." A real worthwhile story appears, entitled "Aunt Hanner's Thanksgiving Dinner." "The Sudden Sixties" will surely interest the ladies. "Gifts From Your Work Basket," replete with pictures 'and how' is very timely with the approaching yuletide season. "Table Decorations During the Holiday Season" come in for two illustrated pages. "Enter Stranger," showing the home of taste, by Emily Genauer, shows how the home may be beautified. "Woman's Coiffures," with twelve illustrations is also an excellent feature. "Patterns for Busy Days and Gaily Nights" portraying the latest styles will be helpful to the ladies. "Have You a Skeleton in Your Closet?" "More About Colleges" are two features worth reading. Two pages of Thanksgiving fixings, beautifully illustrated, are table settings with a hungry smell. "Your Child," "Children of Today," "Remember Menus," cartoons, "Here's to Thanksgiving" replete with food suggestions, are a part of this magazine for November.

The regular issue of the Woman's Day, a monthly publication sponsored by the Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co., is now available and copies can be secured at 2c each at any Holland, Ottawa, or Allegan county A&P food stores. Ask for your copy.

Charles R. Sligh Appoints C. of C. Committees

ARE ORGANIZED IN SIX SUB-DIVISIONS TO ACT FOR COMING YEAR

Charles R. Sligh, Jr., president of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, through the secretary-manager Stephan announced the standing committees for the ensuing year.

At a meeting of the board of directors recently held the new officers were elected and regulations were adopted governing the future activities of the board and the organization.

A statement from the Chamber of Commerce said: "There was a very animated discussion as to the functions of a Chamber of Commerce. The need and desirability of an organization of this kind was unanimously endorsed. It is a most important factor in the city's life and welfare."

"However, it takes more than a board of directors to put it over.

It must be supported by people who are civic minded, who have the city's interest at heart, and who are willing to give of their time and energy to protect and promote the general welfare of the community.

"Believing that there are many of our citizens who are ready and willing to do their part, the board has set up six divisions, and authorized the president and secretary-manager to appoint standing committees for the year, who will sponsor the particular objects covered by their divisions."

The following is a roster of the six standing committees:

Mrs. George E. Kollen Guest Artist At Saugatuck Womans Club

MRS. GEORGE E. KOLLEN GIVES TRAVELOGUE ON AN ALASKA TRIP

Trip by Dog Sleigh Took 15 Days to Nome—Now Flown in 3 Hours

Saugatuck women surely appreciated the talent of a much-beloved Holland woman—namely, Mrs. George E. Kollen. She was the honored guest of the Women's Club there and the club auditorium had never before been made so beautiful with its many baskets and vases of artistically arranged autumn flowers and foliage—it was a bower of beauty and won many favorable comments for the committee in charge, headed by Mrs. Alice Miller of Saugatuck. The stage was most attractive with a background of painted screens and large bowls of marigold and zinnia.

The Saugatuck Commercial Record gives the following review of the meeting, devoting considerable space relative to Mrs. Kollen's contribution to the enjoyable program of the afternoon.

Saugatuck Commercial Record

The spirit of harmony and good will and friendship pervaded the atmosphere the whole afternoon. Each one of the more than 100 women present was in a happy mood, enjoying every moment of the splendid program given. The president gave cordial welcome and stated this being Michigan Poetry Week, the club would observe it, and this was well done by Mrs. Gordon Hoffman, who gave sketches of the lives of Will Carleton, Douglas Malloch and Edgar Guest, three Michigan poets, and read several choice poems through the courtesy of Mrs. P. D. Konold.

In the near future, poems of Mrs. Muriel Jeffries Hurd of Detroit, president of the Michigan Poetry society, will be read. She is outstanding for the worth of her poems and the encouragement she gives to others.

Mr. Carmine Barrille accompanied by Miss Eva Grace Race at the piano, rendered most feelingly Victor Herbert's "Serenade" and a Bohn's "Chrysanthemums," two beautiful violin numbers.

Mrs. George E. Kollen of Holland, a friend of the Saugatuck Woman's Club for many years and always a friend who is willing to do, and to help as she has many times, was introduced and congratulated the club on its many improvements to the new auditorium, the fine new floor and stage curtain, the beautiful paintings, the bronze tablet and the handsome American flag, saying that many clubs in cities could not boast of such, and that the Saugatuck women had always shown themselves as willing workers, and could now enjoy the fruits of their labor.

This day she took her audience to Alaska—and if one can not really go places, the next best thing is to hear the story from one who had the joy of the trip, and Mrs. Kollen proved an excellent narrator, as her audience took the trip with her last summer, starting from Seattle taking the inside passage by boat, along the Japan current, with mountains 6,000 feet high on one side, and water 6,000 feet deep on the other to Ketchikan—then by automobile. One often forgets that Alaska belongs to the United States, it is so far away, of how in 1867 it was purchased from Russia for $7,200,000, through the efforts of Secretary of State Seward, and while many thought of the purchase as "Seward's Folly" and "Uncle Sam's Ice Box," they now speak of it as "Seward's Wisdom" and "Uncle Sam's Bank," for with its furs, salmon fisheries, gold, copper, coal, platinum and other metals, it has been a gold mine to the U. S.

A most interesting country and people and as Mrs. Kollen described the many cities as Anchorage, Seward, Nome, Juneau, the great Yukon river; the glaciers which have worn gorges like the fjords of Norway; some of the greatest glaciers of the world being in Alaska.

Vegetation grows luxuriantly, the vegetables and flowers being very large, as are strawberries, currants, gooseberries, huckleberries and raspberries, and apple trees still yield sour fruit in the old gardens of the Russian missions.

She said: "The women of Alaska are no back numbers. They are educated, well dressed and active in church and civic work." There is a saying that "No woman gets out of Alaska alive," for she is married there, and does not care to leave. The first women who went there were school teachers.

She spoke of one auto trip to the interior on the Richardson Highway where one drove 300 miles without a crossroad, a joy to motorists. Airports and airplanes were common in Alaska, one could fly to Nome in three hours, the same trip taking 15 days by dog team.

At Fairbanks, tourists all wanted to stop at the Pioneer hotel as that was Will Rogers' favorite hotel. At Fairbanks, too, is a university where the students pay no tuition as the need is to encourage education.

So many interesting anecdotes were told, for Mrs. Kollen always sees much of amusement in the everyday life of other countries, as well as the scenery, trips and people and she tells it all in such a delightful manner that her audience never misses a word, as she gives happiness and joy to others—and at the close of her talk all arose and gave her an enthusiastic applause.

Again showing her generosity, the proceeds of the day given by the committee, Mrs. Zwemer, Mrs. Wicks and Mrs. Heath, were at the request of Mrs. Kollen to be placed in the club's piano fund, for which the club is most grateful.

As a closing for the afternoon program Mr. Barrille made his violin almost human in "Mexicali Rose," "Beautiful Heaven" and "O Sole Mio," being accompanied by Miss Race, who is his pupil, playing the accordion.

The club is fortunate in having such entertainers as Mrs. Kollen and Mr. Barrille and is most grateful.

The hostesses then served cakes and coffee, and a social time was enjoyed.

The next meeting of the club will be Friday, Nov. 4, with Mrs. Cora Bliss Taylor telling of "Old Mexico."

Among the guests that afternoon were 20 members of the Current Events club of Plainwell.

No. 4

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

Section 1. There is hereby created a state department of public assistance, hereinafter called the department, which shall possess the powers and perform the duties granted and conferred. Such department shall consist of a state public assistance commission hereinafter created, and of a director as its executive head, and of such assistants and employees as may be appointed or employed in such department. Such department shall have its executive office at Lansing and it shall be the duty of the board of state auditors to provide suitable office accommodations therefor.

Sec. 2. The administration of the powers and duties of the department shall be vested in a commission of five members to be known and designated as the "Michigan public assistance commission," hereinafter called the commission. Provided, That no member of the aforesaid commission shall be a member of any other commission or board, appointive or elective, state or federal. No person holding a position with any state institution or department shall be eligible to appointment to this commission. Members of the commission shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, for a term of four years each: Provided, That of the members first appointed, one shall be appointed for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, one for a term of three years, one for a term of four years, and one for a period (term) of five years. Members of the commission shall be appointed from citizens who possess and have demonstrated sincere interest, knowledge, and ability consistent with the responsibilities of the office, and not more than three of whom shall be members of the same political party. Each member of the commission shall qualify by taking and filing with the secretary of state the constitutional oath of office and shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Members of the commission may be removed by the governor for misfeasance, malfeasance or non-feasance in office, after hearing. Vacancies in the membership of the commission shall be filled for the expiration of the unexpired term, in the same manner as the original appointment. A majority of the members of the commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The commission shall meet on the call of the chairman, or on a written request to the chairman signed by three members of the commission, or at such times and places as shall be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the commission. Provided, That the commission shall hold not less than ten meetings each fiscal year, with an interval of not more than sixty days between any two meetings. The failure on the part of any member to attend three consecutive meetings of the commission, unless excused by a formal vote of the commission, may be treated by the governor as a resignation by such non-attending member, and the governor may appoint his successor. The commission shall annually designate one of its members to act as chairman and one of its members to act as vice chairman of the commission. Members of the commission shall be reimbursed for necessary travel and other expense, and shall be paid fifteen dollars per day when in actual session, to be paid in the same manner as expenses of other state officers are paid.

Sec. 3. The commission shall appoint and employ a director of the department, hereinafter called the director, who shall be the executive officer of the department, and shall be responsible to the commission for the performance of his duties. The director shall act as secretary of the commission, and shall devote his entire time to the performance of the duties of his office. The director shall hold office during the pleasure of the commission. The director shall receive such annual salary as shall be appropriated by the legislature, together with his actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the discharge of his official duties, to be paid in the same manner as the salaries and expenses of other state employees are paid.

Sec. 4. The commission shall appoint a deputy director, an executive head of each bureau or division of the department, and an executive head of each institution (including the Michigan children's institute) under the supervision and jurisdiction of the department. The director shall employ, having first obtained the approval of the commission, such assistants and employees for the department and, subject to the rules and regulations of the commission, incur such other expenses as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act. The executive head of each institution (including the Michigan children's institute) shall be responsible for the employment of all assistants and employees thereof. The compensation of all such assistants and employees, and the number thereof, shall be within the appropriation made therefor by the legislature. Such assistants and employees shall receive their actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties. All salaries and expenses shall be paid in the same manner as the salaries and expenses of other state employees are paid.

Sec. 5. The commission shall adopt all rules and regulations governing the policies of the department, and the director, subject to such rules and regulations, shall be responsible for such executive duties as shall be assigned to him by the commission.

Sec. 6. The commission shall devise a seal, and the rules and regulations of the commission shall be published under the seal of the commission. Copies of all records and papers in the office of the department, certified by a duly authorized agent of the commission and authenticated by the seal of the commission, shall be evidence in all cases equally, and with the like effect, as the originals. A description of the seal, with an impression thereof, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. The commission shall be a body corporate, and is hereby authorized to lease any lands under its jurisdiction and to do any other act or thing necessary in carrying out the provisions of this act.

Sec. 7. Any member of the commission, or the director, may issue a subpoena requiring any person to appear before the commission or director, as the case may be, and be examined with reference to any matter within its jurisdiction and within the scope of the inquiry or investigation being conducted by the said commission or director, and to produce any books, records or papers, pertinent to such inquiry. Any member of the commission, the director, or any duly authorized agent of the commission or director, may administer an oath to a witness in any matter before the commission or director, as the case may be. In case of disobedience of a subpoena, the commission or director may invoke the aid of the circuit court of the county in which the witness resides, or the circuit court of the county in which the inquiry is being held, in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers and documents. Any circuit court of the state, within the jurisdiction of which any such inquiry is carried on, may, in case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena, issue an order requiring such person to appear before said commission or director, as the case may be, and to produce books, records and papers if so ordered and give evidence touching the matter in question. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof.

Sec. 8. The commission is hereby authorized and empowered to create or abolish bureaus or divisions within the department for the economic and efficient administration of the work of the department, and to allocate and re-allocate their several functions and duties. The commission may create within the department a bureau or division of medical care; and if such bureau or division of medical care is created, the director, having first obtained the approval of the commission, shall appoint a properly qualified licensed doctor of medicine as the head thereof, which doctor shall at all times be subject to the control of the commission and director.

Sec. 9. The commission shall prescribe rules and regulations for the conduct of hearings within the department, and provide adequate procedure for a fair hearing of appeals and complaints, by any applicant for or recipient of assistance or service. Such hearings may be conducted by the director, or by any agent designated by the director, but shall be subject to a review by the commission, in case such review is requested in writing. All decisions of the commission shall be binding upon the county, city or district department of public welfare involved and shall be complied with by said department: Provided, That as to those forms of relief which are in no part financed by federal funds, the decision of such county, district or city department of public welfare as to the denial, granting, form and amount of such relief shall be final in the absence of abuse of discretion or bad faith, and that in respect to any dispute or disagreement between an applicant for or recipient of any form of relief and the county, city or district department of public welfare relating to the denial, granting, form and amount of such relief the jurisdiction of the Michigan public assistance commission shall be limited to the fixing of reasonable minimum standards.

The commission may also, upon its own motion, review any decision of a county department of public welfare with respect to the granting of old age assistance, aid to dependent children, aid to the blind, as defined, in each case, in the laws of this state, or any other form of public aid or relief administered by said county department of public welfare, and may consider any application upon which a decision has not been made by the said county department within a reasonable time.

The commission may make such additional investigation as it may deem necessary, and shall make such decision as to the granting of assistance and the amount of assistance to be granted to the applicant as in its opinion is justified and in conformity with the laws of this state.

Sec. 10. The department is hereby designated as the state agency to cooperate with the federal government in the administration of the provisions of title one, title four, part three of title five, and title ten of the social security act passed by the congress of the United States of America, approved August fourteen, nineteen hundred thirty-five, herein referred to as the "social security act," and any amendments thereto or supplemental thereto. The department is hereby authorized and directed to cooperate with the proper departments or agencies of the federal government and with all other departments or agencies of the federal government, and to supervise the administration by local government departments or agencies of any plan or plans established by the state in cooperation with the federal government under the provisions of title one, title four, part three of title five, and title ten of the social security act, and any amendments thereto or supplemental thereto, and the rules and regulations issued thereunder and in compliance therewith. The department shall make such reports, in such form and containing such information, as may be required from time to time under the provisions of the social security act, and shall comply with such requirements as may be made from time to time to assure the correctness and verification of such reports.

The department, with the approval of the governor, shall have power to cooperate with the federal government, or any of its agencies or instrumentalities, in handling the welfare and relief problems and needs of the people of this state, to the extent authorized by the laws of this state.

To such end, the commission shall have power to adopt any plan or plans required or desirable to participate in the distribution of federal moneys or the assistance of the federal government, and the commission shall have power to accept on behalf of the state of Michigan any allotment of federal moneys. The commission shall be authorized and empowered to adopt any rules and regulations and enter into any agreement or agreements with local units of government as may be necessary to enable the state of Michigan, or such local units, or both, to participate in any such plan or plans as said department may deem desirable for the welfare of the people of this state.

For the purpose of securing full federal approval of the activities of the department and local units with respect to the operation of any such plan or plans, the commission and director shall comply with all federal requirements pertaining to methods and standards of administration. In the making of any rules and regulations with respect thereto, there shall be included such methods and standards of administration for the conduct of the work of local units, including the necessary supervision thereof, as may be required for the receipt of aid from the federal government.

Sec. 11. The state treasurer is hereby designated as the custodian of any and all moneys received from the federal government, as authorized in section ten of this act, and of any other moneys received from any other source, and such moneys shall be held and disbursed in accordance with the provisions of the plan or plans adopted, in conformity with the general accounting laws of this state; and such moneys are hereby appropriated for said purposes.

Sec. 12. The department is hereby authorized, subject to the approval of the attorney general, to enter into reciprocal agreements with corresponding state agencies of other states, regarding the interstate transportation of indigent persons, and to arrange with the proper officials in this state for the acceptance, transfer and support of persons receiving any form of public aid or relief in other states in accordance with the terms of such reciprocal agreement: Provided, That this state shall not, nor shall any county or any county department of public welfare, in this state, be committed to the support of persons who the state department determines are not entitled to public support under the laws of this state. This section shall not be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the laws of such states as enact similar legislation.

Sec. 13. The department shall have and be vested with the following additional powers and duties:

(a) To allocate and distribute to the several county, city, and district departments of public welfare, as herein provided, subject to federal rules and regulations, if any, and in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the commission, moneys appropriated by the legislature or received from the federal government for the relief of destitution or unemployment within the state of Michigan, or any political subdivision thereof; for the granting of old age assistance, aid to dependent children, and aid to the blind and otherwise handicapped; for medical, dental, nursing, pharmaceutical, and burial relief; and for such other relief or welfare services as may be provided by law;

(g) To inspect all privately owned and operated homes for aged people, including recipients of old age assistance, and report to the respective county departments of public welfare the findings in respect thereto and recommendations for the improvement of such homes for the safe-guarding of the interests of inmates in such homes; and whenever fraud or misrepresentation to secure money from inmates in such homes, or applicants for admission thereto, is discovered, to report such facts to the prosecuting attorney of the county where any such home is located, or to the attorney general of the state, for further investigation and prosecution;

HOPE COLLEGE NEWS

Ellison and Van Lare Will Coach Nykerk Contestants

Thirteen of the more obstreperous members of the freshman class found themselves standing in judgment last Wednesday night before a solemn and accusing Student Council. They were: Blaise Leval, Walter Ambler, Elmer Brandt, Robert Van Horn, Paul Harrison, David Millen, Don Van Praue, Douglas MacGregor, John Schut, Harold Rozema, Ken Vanden Berg, George Vander Hill, and John Palmer. They were found guilty of offenses ranging from a holier-than-thou attitude to deliberate non-potting to upper-class women. Several of them, including John Palmer, Blaise Leval, and David Millen, were required by the Council to work out various penalties on Thursday and Friday. The Council warned them and all other freshmen, men and women, that any further violations of freshman rules would be severely dealt with.

Meeting last Tuesday and Wednesday nights, the Student Council also appointed the captains and coaches of both the freshman and sophomore teams in the annual Nykerk Cup contest. The date for this competition between freshman and sophomore girls has not yet been decided upon. The freshman coach and captain respectively are Virginia Ellison and Marjorie Mulder, and Jean Wishmeier and Gladys Van Lare are the captain and coach for the sophomores.

Another appendicitis victim! Last Tuesday morning, Henry Levering suffered an attack of acute peritonitis and was rushed to the Holland City hospital the same evening.

Bob Wishmeier, Gordon Plume and Don Van Lare were voted into membership of the Blue Key National Honor Fraternity Monday night at a regular meeting of the fraternity. All three of the men are active in many ways on campus.

The Student Guide for 1938-39 was greeted by an enthusiastic student body when it was distributed during 1st and 4th hours yesterday. The cover of the book is of tan with the printing done in the Hope colors.

The guide is put out every year by the college chapter of the Blue Key National Honor Fraternity which also runs the Blue Key book store. This year James Hallan was editor and Robert Vanden Berg and Gleon Bonnett his assistants.

Every Wednesday is Alcor Apple Day on Hope's campus. Apples will sell for 5 cents a piece from a stand conveniently placed between the Graves and Van Raalte buildings.

At the first meeting of the year, held last Wednesday, Pi Kappa Delta, forensic society, decided it was to again manage a high school debate tournament sometime during the year. The dates and schools to participate will be arranged later.

A permanent program which can be used upon the demand of outsiders for entertainment in the line of speech will also be drawn up.

The program consisted of a humorous poem by Bob Bonthuis, a short story in letters, read by Margaret Allen. The committee in charge of refreshments was Nelva Zandbergen, Virginia Ellison and Mildred Kirkwood.

It was decided that the society will meet the first Wednesday of every month. The November meeting will take place at Dr. Ronald Shackson's home. Bill Jacobs extended an invitation to the students to hold a meeting at the Cosmopolitan house.

The annual Forensic Rally was held Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Dr. Van Saun's room in the basement of the chapel. Pi Kappa Delta President Don Van Lare spoke at some length on the importance of speech work on the campus. He indicated gains not only to the college but also to the individual, such as honors, consideration of extra-curricular activities in connection with job-hunting, chance for initiative, and personal pleasure.

Going on to describe the various types of speech activities, he recommended for those with an inclination toward current problems and conversational style, extemporaneous speaking; for those with the ability to write and speak well, oratory; for the clever thinker and talker, debate; for those who like to express what others have written, interpretative reading.

Bob Bonthuis described the trips to be taken during the year for the different contests. The outstanding ones mentioned were: Kalamazoo (extempore contest, October 24); Grand Rapids (oratory, December 7); Mount Pleasant (peace oratory), Kalamazoo (Interpretative reading, May). Bonthuis concluded with a speech urging students to come out for debate. A brief history of the question was outlined by Marinus Pott. Bill Jacobs defined the debate question, which reads: "Resolved that, the United States should cease to use public funds, including credit, for the purpose of stimulating business (pump-priming) to F. D. R."

Theodore Meulendyk then indicated changes over past procedure in the interpretative reading contest. As to material, there will be no duplications of selections; each contestant will be allowed only five minutes for both selections; contestants will be judged by a number of points rather than being given a ranking as to place. Dean Dykstra concluded the program with his interpretative reading "Doors."

W.A.A. Plans Their Year's Program

On Saturday morning women of the college participated in the second of the fall series of breakfast hikes sponsored by the W.A.A. The girls hiked two and one-half miles east of town and enjoyed a beautiful breakfast which they cooked over an outdoor fireplace.

Last Monday evening the W.A.A. board met to discuss plans for the coming year. Provisions were made for various sports and an intensive campaign for women's athletics was planned.

Friday morning Katharine Van Raalte, president of the W.A.A., called a meeting of all girls after chapel. She briefly explained the purposes and organization of the board and asked that all those interested in the formation of a hiking club would sign slips provided for this purpose in Van Raalte and Graves Halls.
